

KNOW THE FUTURE

Determine coming events by planning and thinking. If you do not own a home, decide to do so and see about getting one at once, by either buying a lot and building later, or by getting a home complete. Are you waiting until times get better? Property will cost you more at that time. Call and let us tell you of one or two bargains at Kaimuki and in town.

PEACE DISTURBERS WERE UNLUCKY.

Mrs. Alfred Naeole and Mrs. S. Kamanu, neighbors living near the corner of Liliha and Vineyard streets, chose a poor time to commence a dispute on Saturday night when about midnight they opened the vials of their wrath and tongue-lashed each other across the lanais. It happened that at that particular time the patrol wagon was standing in the street just below them and the sounds of the wordy warfare drifted to the ears of the waiting police. It was only a few minutes before the two women had the neighborhood aroused and advising them to shut up. Then the police interfered and the rest of the dialogue was continued at the police station.

IN WASHINGTON.

"Sir, may I speak to you?"
"Go ahead."
"Can you spare me a small hand-out?"
"The very idea of an able-bodied man asking for a handout! Why don't you go to work and manage somebody's boom?"

EPISCOPAL CLERGY HAVE A BUSY SUNDAY

The clergy of St. Andrew's cathedral are busy men all the week, but on Sundays especially so. An account of one Sunday (yesterday) will tell something of the activities centering at the cathedral.

At 7 a. m. Bishop Restarick, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Bliss, celebrated the holy communion. At 9 a. m. St. Andrew's Priory Sunday school met. At 9:30 the Rev. E. T. Simpson conducted the Hawaiian service and the Bishop preached. At 10 a. m. the cathedral Sunday school convened, with the Rev. Mr. Bliss as superintendent, and at the same hour, on the cathedral grounds, St. Peter's Chinese Sunday school was held. At 11 o'clock the Bishop read morning prayer and the Rev. Dr. Huntington of Hartford preached.

At the same hour the Rev. Mr. Bliss preached at St. Clement's and the Rev. Mr. Hall at St. Elizabeth's, while the Rev. Kong Yin Tet conducted the services and preached in Chinese to a large congregation in St. Peter's church on the cathedral grounds. Also at 11 a. m. the Hawaiian Sunday school was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Simpson at Iolani School. At 2 p. m. a Japanese Sunday school was held in the cathedral Sunday school rooms, under the leadership of Mr. Fukao. At 4 p. m. the Bishop preached at the Kahlil Mission, the Rev. E. T. Simpson conducting the service.

At 7 p. m. the Chinese service was held on the cathedral grounds, and later in the same building (St. Peter's) a Japanese service, both largely attended. At 7:30 most of the clergy gathered at the cathedral and the Bishop delivered a lecture on "The One Who Spoke with Authority."

From the cathedral, as a center, services were held as usual at the Queen's Hospital and at the Seamen's Institute by Mr. Everton.

Aside from the cathedral staff, the Rev. Mr. Potvin officiated at Waialua in the morning and St. Elizabeth's in the evening, and the Rev. Mr. Usborne at St. Clement's in the evening. This article does not take into account the Sunday work done at St. Mary's Mission, Moiliili.

Tom Quinn has gone into the auto hack business with a fine four-passenger Buick and is prepared to furnish the best possible service. Phone 361.
